*In an effort to convey the reality of four years of searching, questioning, experiencing and c o n t e m-plating, we have attempted to photograph feelings and to phrase thoughts. What will be remembered is the atmosphere and mood, not
the specific acquaintance nor the social event. The substance of these pages is the life each one shared allowing us solitude and involvement*

The Student Cooperative Association is the one organization to which every student belongs. It represents its members through an elected council which serves to express student thought and extend opportunities for responsibility. The SCA strives to develop qualities of leadership and foster student action.

From our president

What is higher education all about? If someone had asked me that question when I was a student and in my first years as a teacher, I would have given a very complex answer. I would have discussed the very wide range of knowledge, understandings, and appreciations in the sciences, social sciences, humanities, and arts which a student ought to acquire. I would have discussed logic and the scientific method. Yes, and perhaps many, many other legitimate aspects of the learning processes.

But the longer I live and the longer I observe what takes place, not only on college campuses, but in the local community and on the national and world scene, the surer I am that there are really two, and only two essential learnings. The first of these is intellectual and the second is moral. In a word, education must teach us to know what is true and what is good. A man who is well meaning but who cannot think straight can be easily duped and misled by shrewd evil men. On the other hand, a man who is intelligent and knows a great deal but is amoral or immoral, is much more dangerous than an ignorant scoundrel.

In case anyone points out that this is what religious leaders have been teaching for generations, I can only say that they are right and that men of learning in science and humanities recognize and stress the importance of intelligence being guided by moral principles.

If this be so, obviously there are two crucial tests of whether a teacher is truly gifted. The first is whether he inspires his students to think. The second is whether he inspires them to act in accordance with moral principles.

Adrian Rondileau

*Enthusiasm of an individual diffused
through many making one harmonious sound ...
Her tireless devotion uplifts the spirit
of traditions ...
Excellence in music inspires response ...

ROBERT V. FAY

Many give a little, some give a lot, a few give all. As a husband, father, campus leader and friend, Bob Fay gave all. He is a symbol of all the energy, vitality and spirit that is the essence of life.

It seems unreal that fate could wrest from this earth, a man so filled with the goodness of life.

MARTIN T. RIZZO

INDESTRUCTIBLE SPIRIT—

“You lead the team, Mase, I’ll watch from the sidelines.”

UNPREDICTABLE HUMOR—

“Hey Boo Boo!”

COMPETITIVE ATHLETE—

“I only play to win!”

EVERY INCH A MAN—

“I’ll give him the biggest smack!”

LIKE A BROTHER—“I’ll
take you to my house
for some spaghetti.”
